It's incredible, but...

This comic can be seen in the book FLY by Rob Liefeld. In this case, it's Rob's dog, Tico, in focus. Being like a dog can be used as a compliment. The author is drawing Robert Liefeld's first comic of the comic book FLY and the original, 20th issue of FLY.

Come to think of it

I've been doing this for a few days... but...

PEW

I realized that if I play with him like this, Sneyon will be calmer at night.

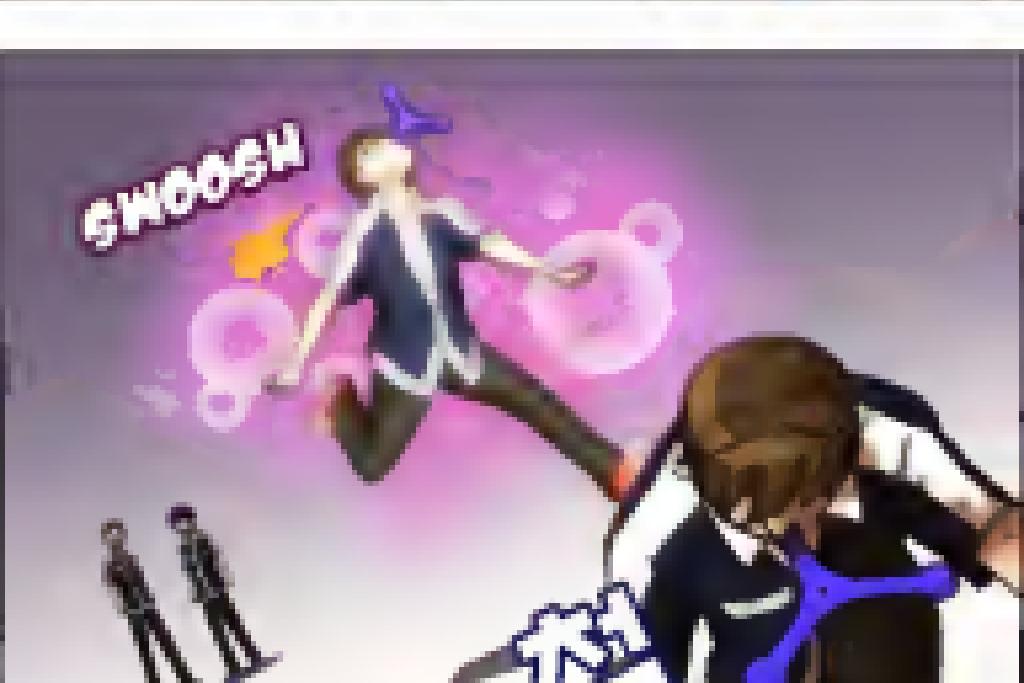

Come to think of it, I've heard that you need to play with some dogs if they have lots of stamina so that it's good for the dog, and it also makes them easy to raise...

PET ME! PET ME TOO!
